

“Revisiting Tempo: A Multifaceted Artistic Journey”

Revisiting Tempo aims to be at the intersection between art and the essence of time through a convergence of diverse artistic dialogues and voices. Held at the heart of Dubai, this unfolding exhibition is a testimony of the city’s forever evolving journey, contrasting the temporal aspects of its past and to its current futurism with the vibrant trajectory of art today.

Featuring an acclaimed array of artists spanning generations, including the late great icon Keith Haring, Ed Burkes, Lydia Dona, Fabien Verschaere, Richard Mudariki, Georges Tony Stoll, Boris Nzebo, Mederic Turay, Issahq Ismail, the exhibition is an open invitation to delve into the symbolism of sustainability, cultural fusion and technological strides.

The selected artists, each through their own lens, collectively shape a dialogue transcending new cities' physical growth. Each of their works serve as living metaphors, illustrating philosophical and cultural evolutions alongside the material development of modern cities. The dynamic interplay of minimalist geometry and intricate abstraction not only mirrors Dubai's impressive skyline but intends to capture the pulsating essence of a thriving new hub.

More than a visual timeline; it is a curated exploration of what the future is made of through the city. A cultural tapestry, interweaving the threads of artistic expression, temporal reflection, and the soul of a metropolis.
