Abdelnaser (Naser) Odeh was born in 1956 in Salfit (West Bank), Palestine. He spent most of his childhood there, until 1975 where he moved to Amman, Jordan, to attend Jordan University where he graduated with a degree in Microbiology.

His true passion has always been revolving around art, sketching and painting from a very young age.

In 1978, he enrolled in the Fine Art Institute of Amman to hone and develop his artistry and technique which allowed him to put on his first exhibition in 1982 in Amman, which was the first of many.

Since then, he took up residence in the UAE where he has had multiple exhibitions over the years.

Naser draws his inspirations from nature, but above all, masters the contemporary art within which he finds his creativeness.

Picasso, Stael, Kandinsky, Klee has drawn upon him a beautiful blend of ingenuities, inspirations, and enriched his artistic journey along with reflections towards perfecting a strong artistic identity and intellectual finesse.

We will find a lot of poetry in Naser's Art, very often contrasted with vivid blends of colors that offer the observer a chance to reflect on different realities, but most importantly, different sentiments.

Naser is an architect of colors whose body of work reveals itself evidently through a refined analysis and approach to shades, texture, materials and expressions.

Bright and vivid paintings of landscapes, portraits, and bold use of colors through the composition of mixed collage artworks: there is a singular and symbolic, highly expressive experience with the promise of a journey within the era of the Modern Art.

Naser has exhibited in a variety of places across the years:

1983, Flying Carpet Club Amman, Jordan

1987, Amman, Jordanian Fine Arts Association

1989, Alia Art Gallery, Amman, Jordan

2010, Arab Cultural Club, Sharjah, UAE

2016, Daghli's Art Gallery, Amman, Jordan

2017, Fadwa Al Kassim private residence, group Exhibition, Dubai, UAE

2019, Arab Cultural Club, Sharjah, UAE (Photography only)
